The 2004-2005 Florida School of Feng Shui program will begin on October 2-3, 2004. This year's program will include a four day weekend with Roger Green who will teach his Module 3, Feng Shui Astrology: Four Pillars analysis. We will also have Alex Stark on January 15-16, 2005, to teach the Meditations and Clearing Ceremonies weekend. I'm excited to be expanding the program and look forward to those of you who plan on attending.

I have recently joined the Harmony Resource Network in the Tampa Bay area. The vision of Lelia Davis to bring alternative information to the corporate environment matched my personal vision and I am excited to be part of her team of experts. Her vision for Harmony is to create a "synergistic system of hand selected qualified professional resources designed to enhance personal growth and maximize job productivity." WOW! Next month I'll be speaking at Echelon as part of my involvement with Harmony.

Susan Huff of Integrity Organics continues to have awesome fundraising events in St. Petersburg at her restaurant on Central Avenue. April 23rd at 7PM will be a fundraiser for the Waldorf School with wine, food music and silent auction. April 30th will be an organic art show and music event at Integrity Organics, from 7PM to midnight. For information call: 727-824-0881.

If you are interested in Feng Shui, Ecology, and love California in the summertime, then you'll want to be at the International Feng Shui Conference in San Louis Obispo, CA. Scheduled for August 6-8, 2004, I will be speaking there and look forward to seeing you. Details at <http://www.fengshuiseminars.com/conferences/teachers/main.htm>

Wishing you a peaceful Passover and Easter weekend!

BAU-BIOLOGIE CORNER

^ Top

Bau-biologie comes to Costa Rica! Last month I was invited to speak at the Architecture University Veritas in San Jose, Costa Rica. It was a great seminar where students, faculty and the community came out to learn about how to improve the built environment. Costa Ricans have a special fondness for nature, and no wonder with the abundance of natural beauty in this Central American country. If you are interested in visiting, you may want to come to my program that the San Jose Landscape Association is planning for mid November, 2004. An interesting weekend learning how you can heal your environment could be capped off by a vacation of your own! There are many fascinating sites to see: active volcanos, private beaches, rainforests, rare and beautiful flora, fauna and birds, and simply a country interested in preserving nature! More details to come in the months ahead.

FENG SHUI SUCCESS TIP FOR YOUR BUSINESS

^ Top

One of the basics of good Feng Shui in your office is your office furniture arrangement. Place your chair with the back to the wall, sitting at a desk where you can see people entering your office, yet, you are not sitting in front of the door. An adjunct to the arrangement is choosing the proper furniture. A solid desk, sized appropriately, is a start. A solid, ergonomic chair is the second and perhaps most important piece. Choose a chair whose back is tall and supportive, with support for your arms and the ability to raise and lower your seat so you are at the proper line of vision in relation to your computer. Your eyes should be in line with the top of your screen, not too high, not too low. Consider the elements from your personal Four Pillars Analysis for the choice of the best colors and materials for furnishings and you are off to a great start!
