Every time I see a new book about Feng Shui, I purchase it to add to my library. I am particularly curious when I find a new author, and usually I will skim the Table of Contents and add it to my shelf. This month I would like to tell you about a book that changed my "following the purchase" habits in ways I didn't anticipate. The book is entitled: "Feng Shui and Money", by Eric Shaffert. I found this book as I was perusing the business section at my local book store, and thought it would be just another book about Feng Shui. I was wrong! In this book, Eric Shaffert, certified psychotherapist and Feng Shui consultant takes the reader on a 9 week journey through their home, their life, and their inner dreams. It is a book that will make you work, but you will have fun doing it! You will also, in the process, begin to make profound changes in your life. This book "is a powerful blend of Eastern spirituality and Western psychological insights that will transform your life." I highly recommend it for anyone wanting financial or other changes to occur in their life. You can order it at: www.amazon.com/exec/obidos/ASIN/1581152396/corporatecrea-20 find that clients have become "EI" (Environmentally Ill) and can trace a specific health challenge to a known chemical or toxic event. Many times it isn't known. This past spring and summer I completed a 12 week treatment to remove high levels of lead within my body. Where did it begin? My family and I have many ideas, but we can't pin point one thing. What was shocking to learn was that many people have high levels and simply may not realize it.

We have been legally warned to test for lead paint in homes built before 1978. Lead can be especially dangerous to children, and can cause damage to the brain, kidneys and nervous system. I am fortunate that my physician, Dr. Carol Roberts of Brandon, FL, had the foresight to consider this possibility for me. My treatment for lead removal was through a process called chelation, an intravenous injection that attracts lead like a magnet and pulls it out of the body. In 1999, Congress designated a week in October as Lead Poisoning Prevention Week, and the next awareness week is October 19 to 25, 2003. FENG SHUI SUCCESS TIP FOR YOUR BUSINESS

This year, we are nearing the end of a 20 year cycle in Feng Shui. While an annual Feng Shui check up is always recommended, it is especially important this year as we enter a new, 20 year cycle. Feng Shui is an analysis of the movement of energy and its effects, much like the theories of Quantum Physics. A Feng Shui consultant trained in the Compass School of thought analyzes the combined effect of the age and direction of your building upon your life. This is known as the Flying Star Analysis. Prior to this major shift in late January, 2004, it is important for you to make any adjustments to correct or make the most of the incoming Flying Star energy.

Chris Adair and John Neuharth had a vision to create a healthy center for helping clients achieve their fitness goals while working out. They will celebrate the grand opening of Results Fitness Studios, Inc. on Wednesday, September 17 at 11am in West Palm Beach. Located at 1900 Okeechobee Blvd., they are just west of I-95, across from AMC Theatres. Contact info: 561-471-2660.

Susan Huff is a dynamic force of energy. She is very active in educating the world about the benefits of organic food, and specifically, biodynamic, organic gardening. On Sunday, September 21, at 5:30 PM she will celebrate the grand opening of Integrity Organic, featuring Organic Foods for Life on the Go! Located at 243 Central Ave., St. Petersburg, FL, she promises to bring good health to the community! You can contact Integrity Organic at: 727-824-0881.
